

Name: _____

Topic: Egypt

MF: Synonyms

Read the passage below and think of synonyms for the words in bold transported

The coffin brought my mind back to stories that my grandad used to tell me of Ancient Egypt. Sitting on his knee, he used to describe the majesty of the pyramids and the mysteries that lurked below the surface.

I looked at Oz's drawing and knew two of the gods that he had drawn: Anubis and Isis. Anubis was the first Egyptian God that my grandad taught me about. I remember being interested about a strange picture in one of his history books that showed a man with a dog's head and asking him who it was. "Ah! That's the God of the Underworld Lily!" he exclaimed.

Complete the activity below

Word

broken

easy

fast

shy

afraid

Synonym

damaged

Word

brave

clever

desert

fragile

disappear

Synonym

bold

Name: _____

Topic: Egypt

MF: Synonyms

Read the passage below and think of synonyms for the words in bold. Then choose a few more from the passage.

transported

The coffin brought my mind back to stories that my grandad used to tell me of Ancient Egypt. Sitting on his knee, he used to describe the majesty of the pyramids and the mysteries that lurked below the surface.

I looked at Oz's drawing and knew two of the gods that he had drawn: Anubis and Isis. Anubis was the first Egyptian God that my grandad taught me about. I remember being interested about a strange picture in one of his history books that showed a man with a dog's head and asking him who it was. "Ah! That's the God of the Underworld Lily!" he exclaimed.

Complete the activity below

Word

broken

easy

fast

shy

afraid

Synonym

damaged

Word

brave

clever

desert

fragile

disappear

Synonym

bold

Name: _____

Topic: Egypt

MF: Synonyms

Read the passage below and think of synonyms for some of the words

transported

The coffin ~~brought~~ my mind back to stories that my grandad used to tell me of Ancient Egypt. Sitting on his knee, he used to describe the majesty of the pyramids and the mysteries that lurked below the surface.

I looked at Oz's drawing and knew two of the gods that he had drawn: Anubis and Isis. Anubis was the first Egyptian God that my grandad taught me about. I remember being interested about a strange picture in one of his history books that showed a man with a dog's head and asking him who it was. "Ah! That's the God of the Underworld Lily!" he exclaimed.

Now think of your own words

Word

Synonym

Word

Synonym
